

MICHELLE CREBER is a 15-year-old actor, singer, voiceover artist and dancer from Vancouver, Canada who plays “Kelly” on CBC TV’s new series Strange Empire, which airs Mondays at 9 pm. She is also known internationally as the speaking/singing voice of “Apple Bloom” and the singing voice of “Sweetie Belle” on Hasbro’s My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic (The Hub/Treehouse).

Michelle's on-screen film and TV credits include Smart Cookies (Hallmark), The Haunting Hour (The Hub), Supernatural (CW), Eureka (NBC), Christmas Lodge (Showcase), Killer Among Us (Lifetime), and The Search for Santa Paws (Disney). Michelle’s acting, musical and comedic skills are also showcased on her YouTube channel in Kristoff und Schloff (one of many collaborations with Gabriel Brown, a.k.a BlackGryph0n) and Speedy & Stretch (with Natalie Sharp). She is a popular guest at fan conventions across North America and overseas, as both a panelist and concert headliner. She performs regularly as a duo with Gabriel Brown and as a family band with her parents Monique & Michael Creber.

In addition to her work on My Little Pony, Michelle has voiced many other characters including “Lucy” in Peanuts Motion Comics (Warner Bros), “Alice” in Martha Speaks (PBS Kids), “Teri” and “Michelle” on Dinosaur Train (Jim Henson) and “Jake” in Adventures of Little Jake & Many Skies (APTN). Michelle’s theatre credits include the title role in Annie (twice), “Dorothy” in The Wizard of Oz, “Brigitta” in The Sound of Music and “Tiny Tim” in A Christmas Carol.

In the summer of 2012, Michelle released her debut album, Timeless: Songs of a Century; an acclaimed, multi-genre collection of top hits from 1910 to 2010. Timeless was immediately embraced by fans from over 100 countries around the world and was quickly followed by the release of A Creber Christmas. Both albums feature vocal skills, style, power and versatility that defy Michelle’s young age.

A talented songwriter who also plays piano, drums and guitar, Michelle is now working on a collection of original songs and enjoys frequent musical collaborations with popular artists such as Black Gryph0n, Andrea Libman, The Living Tombstone, MandoPony, Mic the Microphone, Steffan Andrews & Daniel Ingram. She also loves her many dance classes, a variety of sports, games, art, cooking, photography, family time and her two dogs, Max & Marley!

www.michellecreber.com